Few feedback and suggestions made for the future webinars are highlighted in the table below:

Actually the topic choosed was really apt for today's situation.. actually everyone is worried abt this issue..and sir did explain it efficiently from start to end how to join to how to grow.
An informative session for the TY students!
Discuss job perspective for teachers also
Excellent Webinar and good team work
I really appreciated this session being offered in the online format. The session was really very informative.
I would want to know more about Educational sector and scopes for a commerce student in educational sector
Informative, valuable sessions be continue for bright future of new generation
Keep arranging more per week and send the recording link
Kindly arrange one more session in the first week of july20
Parents should be allowed to participate
Pl. help to know about companies that give paid internships
Please conduct one on job expectations in the market post COVID and suggested crash /bridge course for streams like programming and design
Speaker was to good and we need more such session
Thank you for guiding and making awareness on how to take step towards are career.
The webinar was students centric and was excellent. More such webinars would be very helpful for students.

Report on Career Counselling after graduation

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (I.Q.A.C.), Career Guidance and Placement Cell & Department of Business Economics organized a webinar on 'Career Counselling after graduation' by Mr. Murugan Esakki from Garware Institute of Career Education and Development on 25th March 2021. The welcome address was given by Mr. Nikhil Mammaniya, Convenor, Department of Information Technology. Principal Dr Usha Iyer welcomed the resource person and the participants.

Choosing a career is an important decision in a person's life. Our life, way of living, happiness and peace of mind is greatly influenced by this decision.

Mr. Murugan Esakki made an informative presentation on the objectives of Garware Institute of Career Education and Development. The Institute shapes the career of the students and make them more skilled. He spoke about different streams, course curriculum and future prospects of various programs. The Institute provides full time as well as part time programs according to the requirement and convenience of the students. The basic purpose of this institute is to nurture and polish students to face the corporate world.

Ninety-nine students from Science and Commerce streams participated in the webinar and took keen interest on course curriculum of Garware Institute. CA Vaibhav Banjan, Convenor, I.Q.A.C. and Vice Principal and Principal Dr Usha Iyer shared their experiences. A formal vote of thanks was proposed by Dr Sanghamitra Mishra from the Department of Economics.

Report on Career Guidance and Employability Skills

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (I.Q.A.C.) & Department of Business Economics organized a workshop on 'Career Guidance and Employability Skills' by Garware Institute of Career Education and Development on 12 April, 2021. The welcome address was given by Dr Sanghamitra Mishra, Convenor, Department of Economics. Vice-Principal Ms. Nita Khanolkar welcomes the resource persons and the participants.

In order to be self-reliant and self-sustain, we have to be willing to learn. Learning is a vital skill within itself. Vital skills are components of overall development of an individual.

Dr. Atul Rawal, an experienced financial adviser and capital market expert discussed different career options available in the financial sector. He provided tips and strategies for clearing UPSC and MPSC examinations. He also discussed about different streams, course curriculum and future prospects of various programs.

Psychometric test was conducted by Ms. Ashya Francis to help students to find out their aptitude for different course curriculum.

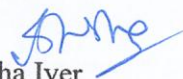

Mrs. Megha Bhansa, a teacher in finance and marketing discussed different dimensions of honorable living for an individual, such as professional and social dimensions which are interconnected and reflected in an individual's personality. She highlighted various skilled based courses like leadership skills, time management, digital communication and also guided the students in preparing their resume.

Two hundred twenty six students from various streams participated in the workshop. A formal vote of thanks was proposed by Mrs. Sitalakshmi from Garware Institute.
