A report on Greeting Card Making Competition

'Greeting Card Making' competition was conducted by the Fine Arts Circle Committee on the 21st of July 2018.

Objectives

- To discover and explore the creative talents of students.
- To emphasize the importance of composition and design elements essential for visual arts.
- To develop additional innovation skills other than fundamental technical ones.
- To provide students free space with 'NO RULE' protocol for exhibiting their hidden talents.
- To promote artistic excellence.
- To promote our heritage through the use of indigenous materials and present traditional knowledge and talent.
- To maintain and sustain fine motor skills.

There were thirty nine enthusiastic students participated in the event showcasing their finesse and skills.

They showed their creativity by displaying a variation of finely honed skills which included paper cutting and coloring. Their literary side was also showcased as they wrote beautiful messages on it, for their near and dear ones.

Prof. Betty Mathew and Prof. Deepali Nijapkar selected the winners.

‘A report on T shirt Painting Competition’

Fabric painting can be done on everything from clothing to home furnishing like curtain and table cloth. It opens up all sorts of possibilities for creative expression.

Objectives

- To discover and explore the creative talents of students.
- To emphasize the importance of composition and design elements essential for visual arts.
- To develop additional innovation skills other than fundamental technical ones.
- To provide students free space with ‘NO RULE’ protocol for exhibiting their hidden talents.
- To promote artistic excellence.
- To promote our heritage through the use of indigenous materials and present traditional knowledge and talent.
- To maintain and sustain fine motor skills.

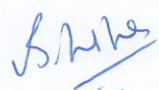

The ‘Fine Arts Circle’ organized T-shirt Painting Competition on 6th August, 2018. Altogether nineteen students of different stream participated with great enthusiasm. They had come with many innovative ideas that reflected on the painted T-shirts. One student had used natural leaves as stencil on which the colour was spread and a beautiful painted image came as a print on the T-shirt. T shirts had paintings of colourful birds, eye catchy flowers, a ferocious lion, a cute Teddy, and an angel made with pearls and shiny stones and natural feathers on the fabric and many T shirts had meaningful messages.

Prof. Helen Selvaraj, Prof. Mona Marwaha and Dr. Sampada Shrivastava selected the winners.

A Report on "Pot Painting Competition"

The Fine Arts Circle had organized "Pot Painting Competition" on 27.08.18 11 am onwards. Altogether, fifty nine students belonging from different streams participated in the competition.

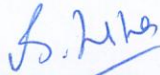

Objectives

- To discover and explore the creative talents of students.
- To emphasize the importance of composition and design elements essential for visual arts.
- To develop additional innovation skills other than fundamental technical ones.
- To provide students free space with 'NO RULE' protocol for exhibiting their hidden talents.
- To promote artistic excellence.
- To promote our heritage through the use of indigenous materials and present traditional knowledge and talent.
- To maintain and sustain fine motor skills.

The participants were provided with raw pots of uniform size, and were asked to paint it. They all transformed the pots, and it was a fascinating to watch them paint and transform the humble pot into a sparkling work of art.

The students used a variety of colours to paint and some used embellishments to give pots an appearance of a peacock and even vases with roses on the body of the pot. A few pots were given a ceramic look by the application of oil colours.

Fine Arts Circle

A report on 'Best out of Waste' Competition

The Fine Arts Circle had organized 'Best out of Waste Competition' on 08.01.19 in the library.

Objectives

- To develop the ability to think and organize thinking [thoughts, ideas] and to create something useful from waste material.
- To explore environmental concepts and actions beyond class room learning by following the principle of 3 R's. Reduce, Reuse, Recycle
- To nurture the values of environmental protection and conservation among students through creative craft activities.

There were twenty participants from various streams. Students had brought many waste material viz. old news-papers, old sarees, egg shells, empty milk bags, old plastic bottles, old CD's, bottles' lids, etc.

What looked ragged, and filthy, was transformed into beautiful products. Some became attractive decorative pieces, while others became day to day utility articles like pillows, seating furniture etc. Students were very enthusiastic and participated whole heartedly.

Prof. Sabina Theraja and Prof. Arushi Sharma selected the winners.

First Prize was shared by Pratibha Chauhan of F.Y.B.Com. and Shweta Mungerker of S.Y.B.Sc.

Second Prize was shared by Sirajunnisha of T.Y.B.Sc. and Prajwal Kesarwani of F.Y.B.B.I.

PRINCIPAL

Third prize went to Angel Nadar of S.Y.B.Sc. and Anvith Poojary of F.Y.B.Sc. and the Consolation prizes were given to Baig Mohammed Arshad of T.Y.B.Com. and Vivek Mauraya of F.Y.B.B.I.

Outcome

- Students learn how scrap material can be transformed into useful and aesthetic looking articles using ideas and imagination .
- This activity enhances their presentation skills
- Help them realize the importance of 3 R's in preserving our environment.

Title of the event: "Pongal Making Competition"

Date of the event: January 17, 2019

Objectives:

- To motivate the students to take part in extra-curricular events
- To inculcate a sense of belongingness & togetherness in students

Number of Participants: 39

Brief Report:

The Southern Cultural Association organized Pongal Celebrations on 17th January 2019. Every year "Pongal" is celebrated with a theme. This year's theme was "celebration with farmers" as the event was scheduled on 'farmers day'. Students enthusiastically participated in various competitions like: -

1. Maa- Kolam (Rangoli with rice flour)
2. Hair Styling
3. One- Minute Make-up and
4. Pongal Making.

The entire College was decorated with flowers and Rangoli. Also, revolving round the theme of the celebration. Students were briefed about the role and importance of farmers. Our Principal Dr. Usha Iyer welcomed and felicitated the members of the Management and our special guests - 'Farmers' who were invited as special guests for the celebration. The stage events began with lighting of the lamp and a prayer song rendered by Prof. Mrs. Chandra. The stage events began with outstanding "Dance Performances" like ummi, Karragattam, Puliattam and thematic songs in Tamil wonderfully performed by the students. The event was followed by a mesmerizing performance by Mr. Rajaganapathi- a Naadaswaram Vidhwan from hobila Mutt Temple- Chembur.

Outcome:-

- Students were accustomed with the tradition of the festival- Pongal.
- Students collectively participated & showcased their talent.

Fine Arts Circle

A Report on “Diya Painting Competition”

The Fine Arts Circle had organized “Diya Painting Competition” on 19th January 2019 in the college library.

Objectives

- To discover and explore the creative talents of students.
- To emphasize the importance of composition and design elements essential for visual arts.
- To develop additional innovation skills other than fundamental technical ones.
- To provide students free space with ‘NO RULE’ protocol for exhibiting their hidden talents.
- To promote artistic excellence.
- To promote our heritage through the use of indigenous materials and present traditional knowledge and talent.
- To maintain and sustain fine motor skills.

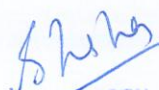

Thirty five students participated. Participants came out with beautiful ideas in transforming raw mud diyas into lively decorative pieces of art. Some had beautiful floral patterns, and a few were painted in a conventional colourful way, and looked pretty and attractive. A few students added hand-made accessories, and created novel and innovative designs which enhanced the Diyas. One diya was made out as a peacock, and another was transformed into Lord Ganesha, yet another was made into a chariot. A special mention must be made of a diya, which was transformed into a waterfall. Students used beautiful shades of colour, as well as many decorative materials.

Prof. Sucheta Revankar and Prof. Deepali Khedekar selected the winners. Diyas were judged under two categories.

In category one (only painting), the following students won prizes:

Fine Arts Circle

A Report on “Face Painting Competition”

The Fine Arts Circle had organized “Face Painting Competition” on 19.01.19.

When you think of face painting, images of carnivals and fairs probably come to mind! Face painting is actually a real art form, and the makeup artists who use faces as their canvas and transform them into animals or fantasy characters are truly talented. Face painting is a great creative outlet for people of all ages. It’s an inexpensive, fun way to explore the worlds of art and imagination.

Objective

- To learn how to transform yourself into someone or something else is the ultimate form of creativity.
- To learn about color theory and symmetry.

Seven students participated. Students used various themes while painting their faces. They were sunset, projection of good and bad, god and evil, double faced personality, a gorgeous princess, ghost etc. Special mention must be made about one participant who painted her face herself by using a mirror.

All the models looked attractive and represented very well, the themes adopted by them. Their fine work on faces conveyed the theme very clearly.

Prof. Neeta Khanolkar and Prof. Rekha Bhatia selected the winners. Anvith Poojary of F.Y.B.Sc. won the first prize, using the theme of god and evil.

Second prize was bagged by Pratibha Chauhan of F.Y.B.Com. who did a beautiful painting on her model’s face to make a princess.

Third prize was given to the sunset theme done by Sonal of F.Y.B.Sc. for her own face painted with attractive orange and yellow colour. Afsana Ansari of T.Y.B.Sc. was given the consolation prize who did the painting of butterfly on her model’s face.
