was a little frightened too. That moment for me was very exciting and special. Tibet road is famous for its apple orchards, later we moved from Kullu to Manali, which is at a higher altitude and is surrounded by mountains.

Manali also has large forest cover with variety of trees and beautiful waterfalls. Dharamsala also has many gardens with beautiful lakes. There are many hill stations like Kullu, Manali, Dalhousie, Dharamsala and Palampur. There are also some Buddhist monasteries and museums. People visit Himachal Pradesh for trekking, mountain climbing and camping. It is also famous for its woollen garments, especially Kullu shawls. Also one can visit places like Khajjiar, Chamba for sightseeing. The trip to Himachal Pradesh was quite exciting and enjoyable, one that brought me closer to nature.

Awesomity = You

Awesomity is something that we all should aspire for. In our life we meet so many people, some are good and some are simply awesome. But, for being awesome we just need to apply cool values in our day-to-day life. 'All goodness in the world lies within you. All the awesomeness is You. It all depends upon the values you choose to live with' - Swami Chinmayananda.

Awesomeness is a choice which requires efforts.

Cool values mean great values, the moral values. Do we ever think that we should try to know about our awesome values? No answer, a big question mark? As per the above sentence, all goodness in the world lies within you. All the awesomeness is 'YOU'. It all depends upon the values you choose to live with. So true and so motivating. But people are so scared of society, such as, what will society think? Will they support us? and so on... But as we all know, fear is a useless emotion. Awesome people often do things which scare them, because "Darr ke aage jeet hai!" These are some awesome values which makes a person simply awesome.

Dama (Sense control), Ahimsa (Non injury), Tyaga (Sacrifice), Akrodha (Angerlessness), Daanam (Charity) and many more.

In order to apply these cool values, we just need to change our Drishtikon (point of view). The young generation gets angry (Krodha) very quickly. I remember a great line by Buddha, 'Holding on to anger is like grasping a hot coal with the intent of throwing it at someone else; you are the one who gets burnt'.

Those who have big Ego (Abhimaanah), can never be awesome. Everyone says that we don't have ego. Swami Chinmayananda says, 'Ego is a strange thing.' The moment you think you don't have it, you have it. Let me relate an awesome story on egoism. Once upon a time, a tortoise and a hare had an argument about who was faster. They decided to settle the argument with a race. The tortoise and hare both agreed on same route and started with the race. The hare shot ahead and ran briskly for some time. Then seeing that the tortoise was far, the hare thought he would sit under a tree for some time and relax before continuing the race, but soon fell asleep. But the tortoise didn't stop for a second. Slowly and steadily the tortoise completed the race. Afterwards, the hare woke up and realized that he had lost the race. The story itself says that the hare was so sure that he would win the race, that his egoism (Abhimaanah) and laziness (Aalasyam) made him lose the race. In reality, we are all egoistic in some way, which creates a lot of problems, getting angry is one of them. Anger is one of the direct causes of depression and stress. Awesome values teach us how to keep away anger, by maintaining a love book, by apologizing for our mistakes. 'To forgive is the highest, most beautiful form of love. In return, you will receive untold peace and happiness.'

We should try to keep our ego (Abhimaanah) and anger (Krodha) aside and sacrifice (Tyaga) things for the needy which would be priceless. Great lines by Swami Chinmayananda, 'To drop the lower from the higher is sacrifice. To drop the higher from lower is Compromise.' Giving up one's studies for watching a movie, is not sacrifice. Sacrifice makes us remember the freedom fighters of our country, Bhagat Singh, Sukhdev and many more.

Sacrifices make people fall in love with the awesome values. 'It may be possible to give without loving, but it is never possible to love without giving'. Learning awesome values has only one translation that is to give.

We must try to be awesome, obstacles will come in the way of being awesome. But we should not quit.

Always remember - anyone can be cool, but being awesome takes time and practice. So say it, 'Yes, I am under the influence of awesomeness'.
