

FIRST YEAR B.COM. / B.SC.
SUBJECT: FOUNDATION COURSE
SEMESTER I

Sr.	Course Objective	Course Outcomes
1)	To explain the pluralistic nature of Indian society through its demographic composition	Students will Have a better understanding of Indian society that is made up of multi-racial, multi-religious, multi linguistic and multicultural groups
2)	To sensitize students about inequalities in the society, gender disparity and regional variations in India	Be able to evaluate the factors that give rise to gender disparity
3)	To examine disparities due to caste system that cause inter-group conflicts	Be able to identify factors that give rise to inter-group conflicts and strategies that can help to reduce them
4)	To make the students know about the philosophy of the Indian Constitution, its structure and the fundamental duties of Indian citizens	Understand the broad philosophy of the Indian Constitution and the provisions made in it enabling a strong foundation to become able citizens for the country
5)	To make students aware of the significant aspects of political processes in India, local self-government in urban and rural areas and role of women in Indian politics	Learn about the party system and the governance structure in rural and urban India and about empowerment of women in India

FIRST YEAR B.COM. / B.SC.
SUBJECT: FOUNDATION COURSE
SEMESTER II

Sr.	Course Objective	Course Outcomes
1)	To explain the processes of liberalization, privatization and globalization and the growth of information technology and	Students will have knowledge about: Be able to identify measures adopted under the processes of liberalization, privatization and globalization
2)	To study the impact of globalization in the fields of agriculture, industry, pattern of employment and migration	Know to evaluate the impact of globalization on Indian agriculture, industry, employment pattern and migration
3)	To enable students to understand the evolution of human rights and its connection to Fundamental rights in the Indian Constitution	Know the features of human rights and the Fundamental rights of the Indian Constitution
4)	To sensitize students about environment and its connection to the quality of human life explaining the causes of environmental degradation and the importance of sustainable development	Come to know the significance of protecting environment for better quality of life and the need for sustainable development
5)	To explain Maslow's theory of self-actualization and enable students to understand the various causes of conflict and stress and ways of stress management	Identify the factors that give rise to conflict and stress and learn about coping mechanisms