DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS COMMUNICATION

Report for the Academic Year 2018-2019

- The Department has been actively contributing to the following committees during the academic year: Exam Committee, Magazine Committee, English Literary Association, Women Development Cell and Students' Council.
- The Department organized 'Essential Communication Skills Course' between 27th July 2018 - 4th August, 2018. Students from various colleges in Mumbai registered for the Program.
The first module consisting of phonetics was conducted by Dr Saroja Ganapathy. This session was aptly titled Sounds of the English language as it introduced the students to the shapes and sounds of the English language.
The next module spanned over two days. It was deftly handled by Ms Anusha Ramanathan. She did an in-depth job of Report Writing, Drafting Emails and Critical Thinking and Communication.
Dr. Archana Upadhyay shared her expertise on the topics Group Discussion and Interviews. Her experience with industry proved to be of great help to students.
Ms Ananya Mani dealt with the module on the very necessary skills that included Presentation Skills, Business Etiquette and Drafting of SOP.
The course was beneficial to the students and the positive feedback was encouraging.
- The students were shown videos on Group Discussion, Interviews, and Presentation Skills as a part of tutorial activity in January, 2019.
- Remedial lectures for students were engaged prior to examination
- A Holistic Development of students is aimed at by balancing lectures and tutorials.
