COURSE OBJECTIVES & COURSE OUTCOMES

Subject: Information Technology in Accountancy I

S.Y.B.COM (Accounting & Finance)

(Semester III)

Sr. No.	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
1)	To help students recall the origin of computers, its parts and networking topologies.	Students would recall the origin of computers and discuss the concepts like hardware, software, networking and its topologies.
2)	To introduce different office productivity tools to the students.	Students would assess the use of MS Word, MS Excel and Power Point in day-to-day business and would be aware of their wide features.
3)	To enable students to understand the concept of Web in computer technology.	Students would evaluate the use of web browsers, optimization of search engines and other information searching tools. They would be acquainted with creation of new email IDs and sending data through email.
4)	To help students with various concepts related to internet and other emerging technologies.	Students would be able to relate and appreciate the use of internet in day-to-day life and would also be aware of the risks, security considerations and legal issues related with it.
5)	To make students aware of the concept of e-commerce, its growth, security threats and other related concepts.	Students would describe how the emergence of e-commerce has changed the dynamics of doing business. They would evaluate the infrastructure, web-based tools and e-payment systems required for e-commerce. They would assess the threats and security issues involved in e-commerce scenario.