

COURSE OBJECTIVES & COURSE OUTCOMES

Subject: Foundation Course (Contemporary Issues) -III

S.Y.B.COM (Accounting & Finance)

(Semester III)

Sr. No.	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
1)	To enable students to assess the situations leading to human rights violations and their redressal	Students would assess of violations of human rights on the basis of caste, tribe, gender and disabilities and their redressal mechanisms. They would also be able to discuss about the legal rights bestowed upon by the Constitution of India.
2)	To equip students to deal with environmental concerns.	Students could relate with the environmental disaster and its impact on people and the society. They would also evaluate the ways to prevent, mitigate and deal with situations leading to disaster.
3)	To enable students to acquaint with the development of science and technology and help them assess its role in exploding the myths and superstitions.	Students would relate and discuss the ancient cultures and practices and the development of science. They would examine the role of science in exploding myths and blind beliefs and would discuss the use of science and technology in everyday life.
4)	To develop soft skills for effective interpersonal communication in students.	Students would discuss the importance of effective listening, types of communication and barriers to effective communication. They would be acquainted with writing skills, necessary skills for interviews and presentations. They would be aware of leadership skills and its role in self-development.