

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND COURSE OUTCOMES
B.COM. (BANKING AND INSURANCE) - SEMESTER - II
SUBJECT: QUANTITATIVE METHODS - II

Sr. No.	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
1)	To illustrate students with hypothesis testing techniques	Students will be able to test hypothesis will be able to make test and get appropriate result outcome from it
2)	To acquaint the operational research techniques to solve business problems	Students will be well acquainted to understand problem-solving methods through various operational research and mathematical techniques
3)	To acquaint the Ratio analysis and statistical application in investment Management	Students will be able to analyze the ratio and working of investment management through mathematical applications and take action based on it
4)	To acquaint economic indicators and its applications	Students will be able to understand various economic indicators and its impact