

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND COURSE OUTCOMES
B.COM. (BANKING AND INSURANCE) - SEMESTER - III
SUBJECT: ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOUR

Sr. No.	Course Objectives	Course Outcomes
1)	To explain the various aspects of individual behavior such as personality, learning, perception, emotions and decision making	After studying the course student will learn about individual behavior, Group dynamics, Organizational dynamics
2)	To acquaint about the various aspects of group behavior such as corporate communication, power, politics, groups and teams	Students will be well equipped to understand Organizational dynamics and how to use the dynamics in a company's development
3)	To acquaint the concept of structure and the various traditional and modern forms of organizational structure. To make students acquaint the use of Organizational behavior theories and principles in Banking and Insurance	It will also make the student aware of Organization behavior in Banking and Insurance Sector