Annual Report 2019- 20

Counseling Cell

28-07-2020

The Counseling cell had implemented the “Mentor- Mentee Scheme’ from the beginning of the academic year. As per the scheme each student was assigned a mentor with whom they communicated their problems and received appropriate advice.

Towards the end of the academic year the COVID-19 pandemic set in creating panic and depression among the students. Most students had personal issues involving finances, personal relationships and familial hardships including members of the family being diagnosed positive for COVID-19. They contacted teachers telephonically and were guided to a more peaceful frame of mind and also made more able to cope with the crisis.
